Welcome New Members

A meet-our-new-members session was held on 21 September at Sophia Road, an occasion for our members to acquaint with the courses conducted by SACE and activities organised by U3A – all such activities are organised as a service for our members. 34 new members attended this event. Complimentary vouchers to redeem certain sessions of selected courses were given away. Those who are entitled to the vouchers but did not attend would have received the vouchers via email.
